

Kraft Canada Inc. is a food industry leader in Canada with an impressive portfolio. Our Ingleside, Ontario natural cheese manufacturing facility is located in a quaint community alongside the beautiful St. Lawrence River with easy access to Cornwall, Ottawa, and Montreal.

The L6S Analyst will have the opportunity to be involved in various L6S (Lean 6-Sigma) initiatives within our site and develop skills in critical thinking, variability analysis, and report/recommendation preparation and presentation. The analyst will lead and conduct required MSA (Measurement System Analysis) and will gain exposure to the cheesemaking process, powder processing department and cutting/packaging department.

The L6S Analyst will report to the Continuous Improvement Manager or Production Manager and will be involved in the continuous improvement projects: evaluation of equipment efficiencies, process optimization, identifying and correcting sources of variation and ergonomics. Involves sampling, test arrangements, consolidating all data results, research, conducting trials, in process testing, evaluation of finished products and working in collaboration with operations, maintenance and engineering.

We are looking for graduates from a Bachelor's Degree in a science field.

The successful candidate must be objective and have a strong safety and quality focus. Must demonstrate the ability to manage multiple projects, work autonomously, complete statistical analysis and make recommendations for change. Requires excellent analytical skills and knowledge of process analysis, communication skills, computer skills (Microsoft Office), and organizational and time management skills. General knowledge of cheesemaking, dairy processing and L6S would be an asset.

We offer very competitive remuneration based on experience and qualifications and potential for future employment with Kraft Canada. Information on housing in the area will be provided by the site. Information about Kraft Canada can be found by browsing our website at www.kraftfoodscompany.com/home/index.aspx.

Please forward application to hingleside@kraftfoods.com by November 18th.
